

THE INTERNATIONAL HOUSE OF ARTS

Dear colleagues!

2018 year is the year of Small Motherland in Belarus. There are planned a lot of events aimed to develop the territories, promotion and support of gifted pupils, students and adults of different professional fields. One of the most important aims is decline of outflow of young and prospective people from small cities, and creation of favorable life level.

The younger generation creates the prerequisites for the development of new activities, one of them is the creative industries.

14 december of 2018r. in Minsk will be held the International Scientific-Practical Conference "Education - Creative - Innovations".

The aim of conference – is identifying areas for innovative development in education and culture

Conference participants: teachers, students, master, graduate students of universities and technical schools, teachers, librarians, heads of clubs, leaders of school and extracurricular subject associations, teachers of art disciplines, employees of cultural institutions, other people interested in applying innovative approaches in working with gifted pupils and students, and the development of the system of additional education of children and adults, leisure time, the creation of creative spaces.

Themes of the conference: strategy of the educational process, development of distance learning systems, creative management, creative industries, creative economics, innovation management, leadership, ideas, co-creation, participatory strategies in institutions, cooperation in research projects, methods for increasing the volume of paid services to the public, project activities, writing and submitting applications for grants, creating creative spaces and clusters, improving methods of working with gifted students and their further development movement, the development of additional educational and recreational systems, presentations and reports of the participants.

Languages of the conference: Belarusian, Russian, English.

Form of participation in the conference: full-time, correspondence. With the submission of abstracts, articles, report. Participation without abstracts, articles, report as a listener is allowed.

The cost of full-time participation in the conference (with the arrival in the Republic of Belarus): euro per person

Cost of correspondence participation in the conference (submission of abstracts or articles): euro per person

The cost of correspondence participation includes the publication of abstracts and articles in the Compendium and the issuance of a certificate of participation in the conference.

Travel and accommodation during the conference is carried out at the expense of the sending party or own account of the participants.

Payment for participation in the conference can be made at the expense of sending institutions or directly by the participant.

Please provide the necessary assistance in providing information about the conference as soon as possible to all interested individuals, teams, and delegate representatives from your institution to participate.

To participate you should:

1. Fill in, sign, seal the application form for participation (in the case of individual participation, the seal and signature of the manager may not be affixed). The electronic version of the application for participation, requirements for registration of abstracts and articles are on the website at: <http://bel.education/conference>
2. Participants wishing to speak at the conference with a report or presentation on the activities of the institution / project implementation should be accompanied by abstracts of the report.
3. Scan the application and send it with all materials via e-mail: conf@bel.education no later than November 26, 2018. with the obligatory indication in the text of the letter Full Name of member and contact details.

After receiving of the documents they will be considered, the participant will be sent an invitation ticket to participate in the conference with participation confirmation.

At the end of the conference, participants will be issued certificates of training on innovation. Upon request, a certificate is issued on the inclusion of abstracts, articles, reports in the collection of materials.

Additional information is obtained by phone:

+375 (17) 326 00 00; 361 33 30; +375 (29) 551 33 30.

E-mail: conf@bel.education